

Encouraging the active and informed participation of citizens in their government

Educate

Citizen education and voter service are cornerstones of our work. At the state and local levels, we organize candidates' debates and forums, publish voters' guides, coordinate voter registration, and create civics programs. Learn more.

Empower

Joining the League is a great way to engage in your community and become involved in the issues that matter most to you at the local, state, and national levels. The League enables citizens to become citizen activists. Learn more.

Advocate

The League does not support candidates or parties, but LWVMA and the local MA Leagues take positions on important issues of public policy after study and consensus. We are a force for change in Massachusetts. Learn more.
