Massachusetts' Presidential primary Tuesday, March 3, launches a busy election year.

Individuals can check their registration status or register online at www.sec.state.ma.us/ovr/, or you can visit the office of your city or town clerk. Early voting will be available Feb. 24-28; check your local town or city website for hours.

The League's online voter guide, VOTE411.org, has information on the Massachusetts primary. This guide contains biographical information on the candidates, as well as information on voting. The election information provided by the League is nonpartisan; we never endorse or support parties or candidates.

The state primary election will be held Tuesday, Sept. 1, and the last day to register to vote is Aug. 12. This primary election includes the race for U.S. Senate, as well as any primary contests for Representatives to Congress or state Senators or Representatives. The general election, including the race for President, will be Tuesday, Nov. 3. The last day to register to vote is Oct. 14. Early voting will be available Oct. 19 through Oct. 30. The online voter guide, VOTE411.org, will be updated for each of these elections.

The League of Women Voters encourages all citizens to register and to vote in these elections.
